

Dr Martin Sutherland – Publications

Refereed Publications | Papers & Lectures | Reviews

An active researcher and writer, Martin examines the ways Christians engage their intellectual and social contexts. The sometimes complex interaction of individuals and church communities with their cultural settings often reveals challenges for Christian belief and practice. With a particular interest in the dynamics of nonconformist communities Martin has addressed these questions in New Zealand and international settings through a range of publications and papers.
