1 INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the General Information and Regulations is to provide a definitive source for all formally approved academic regulations at Laidlaw College. It should provide students and staff with a useful and comprehensive reference point for policies, regulations and procedures that are applicable to all programmes of study.

The information contained in this handbook, as well as the school handbooks, the Fee Schedule and other associated documents, is correct at the time of publication. While all reasonable efforts have been made to ensure information is up to date, some changes may occur. The regulations contained in this handbook apply to all Laidlaw College students, unless noted.

Students are responsible for knowing and understanding the current academic regulations outlined in this handbook. Ignorance of a policy is not a valid reason for requesting an exception to any regulation. Any programme or graduation requirement, when amended, is not made retroactive unless the amendment is to the student’s advantage.

Laidlaw College reserves the right to withdraw a programme of study or impose limitations on enrolment should circumstances require this.

- Medical and Travel Insurance: international students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance that complies with the Code of Practice for International Students while studying in New Zealand. It is recommended this be purchased through Laidlaw College for the full length of the programme at the time of acceptance. The cost per year is approximately NZD600 per person or NZD1520 per family. These amounts are outside the control of Laidlaw College and subject to change. For further information please contact the Admissions Coordinator. Proof of medical and travel insurance will be required before an offer of place is given.

- English Language Proficiency Test (academic): all applicants whose first language is not English are required to take a recognised English language proficiency test (academic version) during their application process and achieve a test score appropriate to their desired programme of study. The cost of this test in NZ is approximately $400.

2.5.2 STUDENT LOANS AND ALLOWANCES

Student loans and allowances are processed and administered directly by StudyLink, a service of the Ministry of Social Development. To ensure commencement of study is not hindered, students are highly recommended to start the application process with StudyLink at the same time as applying to Laidlaw College or submitting a course selection for the following year.

Students who are eligible for “Fees Free” must indicate at the time of application and adhere to the rules and regulations as advised by the Tertiary Education Commission. If Fees Free eligibility is not confirmed by the end of the 3rd week of semester the student will be invoiced for any unpaid fees.
Most Laidlaw College programmes qualify for student loans and allowances. Full and part-time domestic students may access loans (providing all criteria are met). Allowances are usually only available to students who are enrolled in at least 48 credits per semester or 96 credits per year. Courses at Laidlaw are 15 or 30 credits therefore Laidlaw students will need to be enrolled in at least 60 credits per semester or 105 credits per year. Students enrolled in the Master of Theology are not eligible for allowances, and students enrolled in the Certificate of Proficiency (CoP) are not eligible for loans or allowances.

For information or to apply contact StudyLink directly on 0800 88 99 00 or online at www.studylink.govt.nz.

2.5.3 SCHOLARSHIPS

Laidlaw College provides access to a number of scholarships and funds for students studying in New Zealand. All scholarships are annual unless otherwise stated. Scholarship award decisions will be made on the basis of a completed application form by the Laidlaw College Senior Leadership Team or nominee. Applications for the following year must be received by the 1st day of December each year.

Completing an application does not guarantee a scholarship. Decisions regarding the awarding of scholarships are affected by available funds, quality of applications and number of applicants in a given year.

Further information please see Laidlaw website: www.laidlaw.ac.nz/scholarships

2.5.4 FEE PAYMENT TERMS

Fees should be paid on or before the due date indicated on the invoice. Fee payment dates must be strictly observed as penalties for late payments apply. Fees are due at the beginning of the academic year for the full year of enrolment.

In signing the enrolment contract the student undertakes to pay all fees as they become due and to meet any late fees and collection charges associated with debt recovery. Please refer to the Laidlaw Fee Schedule on the Laidlaw website for further details.

Laidlaw College meets the fee protection requirements of the Education Act 1989 by ensuring all fees are paid direct to Public Trust for allocation to Laidlaw College in accordance with the Act. See below for further details.

The right of any student to continue their study (attend lectures, have assignments marked, sit exams, access library resources, access Moodle, etc.) or to commence a new semester of study may be withdrawn if:

- fees are not paid in accordance with the Fee Payment Terms; or
- other financial obligations to Laidlaw College are in default; or
- enrolment documentation (including student loan and fee protection) is not complete.

Where a student has not fulfilled their student loan or fee protection or financial obligations (tuition or any other debt) to Laidlaw College the following shall apply:

- the person’s academic results will be withheld;
- the person shall not be re-enrolled as a student at Laidlaw College;
- the person will not be entitled to receive a copy of their academic record;
- the person will not be entitled to have their record transferred to any other academic institution;
- the person’s course assessments will not be marked or returned;
• the person will not be entitled to graduate;
• the person will not be entitled to receive a letter of completion.

Payment default and account collection

Payment default and account collection regulations are detailed in the Fee Schedule. The Fee Schedule and its regulations are an integral part of the academic regulations.

2.5.5 FEES PROTECTION

The New Zealand Government requires all Private Training Establishments (PTEs) registered with the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) to protect all student fees paid to them.

We have appointed the Public Trust to manage this obligation, and use their Fee Protect service. Public Trust is a government owned trustee company that has been in existence for over 135 years and all fees deposited with Public Trust have an unsecured capital guarantee from the New Zealand Government.

Students’ fees are deposited into a trust account at Public Trust and paid to Laidlaw College over the duration of their study in accordance with an agreed payments schedule. This ensures that at any time sufficient money is available to refund the unused portion of student fees in the unlikely event that Laidlaw College is unable to complete the delivery of a course, for example due to closure, insolvency or loss of NZQA accreditation.

For more information, visit Public Trust’s website (https://www.publictrust.co.nz/fee-protect) or contact Public Trust on 0800 494 733.

In addition to the above protection, mechanisms are in place to provide for recognition of Laidlaw College learning by other providers, should it fail financially. Details are available on request from the Academic Dean.
2.6 ENROLMENT

2.6.1 LIMIT ON STUDY LOAD

Students may not undertake more than 60 credits per semester without applying and receiving permission, in writing, from the Academic Head.

In the interests of a student’s academic success, Laidlaw College reserves the right to limit the number of courses a student may take in any given semester. Students need to be aware that access to student loans and allowances may be compromised by such a restriction. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of these implications.

2.6.2 ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR ON-CAMPUS COURSES

Full attendance at lectures, tutorials, seminars and other forms of designated classwork is expected. Unsatisfactory attendance (less than 80%) is grounds for failure of a course. Unsatisfactory attendance of all courses may lead to withdrawal of the study contract by Laidlaw. A pattern of late arrival at class or early departure will also be considered as absence, and in such cases the Academic Registrar will consider appropriate disciplinary measures.

If a student is absent for reasons of ill-health and informs the lecturer that s/he is unable to attend, it is considered an ‘explained absence’. If a student is away from classes for reasons of illness for more than three consecutive days a medical certificate should be provided to support the explained absence. Explained absences are not taken into account when the total absences are calculated, only those days that the student is absent from class without informing the lecturer, or other appropriate Laidlaw staff member, before the start of class.

Students on a student visa should note that their attendance will be monitored with special vigilance and international students are expected to be in class at all times (100% attendance) as required by the conditions of their visa. Immigration New Zealand will be informed of any international students in danger of failing to meet 80% attendance including explained absences.

2.6.3 CROSS CREDITS

Laidlaw College recognises learning that takes place in a variety of different ways and in different places. Some of this learning takes place in a formal setting such as a school, college or university where students receive a certificate or award to indicate that the learning has occurred. Some learning takes place more informally through work and life experiences. Laidlaw College recognises both formal and informal learning to help students achieve the qualification that they are working towards.

2.6.3.1 EXTERNAL CROSS CREDITING

Cross crediting allows students to gain credit for tertiary level studies undertaken at another institution. Cross crediting will be done on the basis of matching course outlines, learning outcomes and assessments passed against those of the courses appropriate for the programme enrolled in.

Where there is not a direct match between courses, a minimum 80% match is acceptable. Full documentation must be provided to validate the claim for cross crediting of courses.

Cross credits may be specified or unspecified.

- Specified Cross Credit is where a student has completed a course equivalent to a Laidlaw College course. The content, level and learning outcomes must be the same or very similar to the Laidlaw course.
• Unspecified Cross Credit is where the student has completed an unrelated course at another recognised tertiary institution.

Details on credit recognition and transfer in education programmes (Bachelor of Education (Primary); Graduate Diploma in Education (Secondary)) are clearly documented and a copy of the documentation is given to the student to provide when they apply for teacher registration.

2.6.3.2 RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

(RPL) is the formal recognition of non-credentialed prior learning. RPL is where a student has validated experiential learning that is equivalent to a Laidlaw course. All applications for RPL must be related to an identifiable course. RPL gives students the opportunity to reduce the amount of time required to achieve a qualification by recognizing learning that has not been taken towards a formal qualification. Examples are Christian ministry experience or achievement in a related profession.

RPL will be awarded on the basis of matching the prior learning outcomes and assessments, levels and credits against those of the Laidlaw College programme in which the student is enrolled. Documentation presented must provide all necessary requirements regarding learning outcomes and assessment methods in courses passed.

The work completed must be equivalent to and at the same level as the Laidlaw College programme enrolled and should normally have been completed in the past eight years. The number of credits granted shall not exceed one third of the qualification and no RPL will be awarded for the final year of a programme.

For the Bachelor of Education (Primary) the number of credits granted shall usually not exceed one-third of the programme and no RPL is given for any final year professional experience placements. No RPL is given for any professional learning experiences in the one-year Graduate Diploma in Education (Secondary). RPL cannot be double counted. If RPL has been given for one of the qualifications used to gain entry to the programme, it cannot be used again for credit reduction.

2.6.3.3 INTERNAL CREDIT TRANSFER

Internal credit transfer refers to the transfer of courses and credits from one Laidlaw programme into another. These will be considered on a case by case basis. All applications for internal credit transfer should be made to the Academic Head after discussion with a programme advisor.

2.6.3.4 MAXIMUM CREDITS POSSIBLE THROUGH CROSS CREDITS AND/OR RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

To ensure that the qualifications gained reflect the ethos and distinctives of Laidlaw College, two thirds of any qualifications must be completed at Laidlaw College. The maximum credits possible through cross crediting and/or recognition of prior learning is up to one third of the qualification being sought. All requirements of the qualification being sought must be fulfilled.

Credit towards a programme of study may be approved for recognition of prior learning or for courses completed outside of Laidlaw. Applications must be submitted to the Academic Registrar for approval by the Academic Head.

2.6.4 CHANGING PROGRAMME ENROLMENT

Students who find that they have enrolled in a programme that is not suited to their needs or academic ability should discuss this with a programme advisor. To change the programme enrolled in the student must complete a Change of Enrolment form and submit it to the Academic Registrar. Conversely, the review of academic results following each semester, may result in requiring a student to change his or her programme. Such changes should normally be made at the end of the first semester of a student’s programme in consultation with a programme advisor.

2.6.4.1 CHANGES TO COURSES WITHIN A PROGRAMME OF STUDY

Add or Change a Course

Students who wish to add or change courses must submit a Change of Enrolment form. This must be approved by a programme advisor. Please see the table below for details of final dates for adding or changing courses and the applicable fees. The Academic Head must approve an application for additional courses where the approved credit limit for undergraduate programmes (60 credits per semester) has been exceeded.

Withdrawal from a course

Students who wish to withdraw from a course or courses must submit a Change of Enrolment form. This must be approved by a programme advisor. Please see the table below for details of withdrawal dates, applicable fees and academic penalties.

For the purposes of withdrawals from block and intensive courses, students should note that the official start time of a block course is the first day of the semester, regardless of the timing of any intensive teaching period. If a student withdraws from the programme of study within 21 calendar days of the day when the semester officially starts a full refund of fees paid will be given less 10% or $500, whichever the lesser.

Withdrawals after any intensive teaching period has commenced will not receive any refund of tuition for that course.

When a student withdraws from a course, StudyLink will be notified if required.

Substituted courses

Where Laidlaw has cancelled a course, students may be directed to withdraw from the cancelled course and substitute another course of the same level and credit value. The student must still submit the appropriate form however, in this case, the administration fee will be waived. The cancelled course will be deleted from the student’s academic record.

If a suitable course is not available in the same semester due to timetabling constraints, the student may substitute a course in the following semester without incurring the administration fee. If a suitable course is not available until the following year, or the course is not required for the completion of the study programme, the student will receive a full refund of fees for that course.

If a student chooses to take up a course with a higher credit value in substitution of the cancelled course, he/she will be required to pay the difference in fees between the courses. The administration fee will be waived.

2.6.4.3 CHANGE TO MODE OF STUDY

A student can withdraw from a course or programme in both on campus and distance learning mode up until the end of the third week of study, but a distance learning course cannot be added during the third week of study without approval by the Academic Head.

2.6.4.4 DEFERRAL OF STUDY

If a student wishes to take a break from their studies but intends to recommence in the future, they must apply to defer their studies by completing a Change of Enrolment form. When a student is considering deferring their studies, they should discuss this with the appropriate Academic Head or a programme advisor. This consultation should occur at the earliest possible date to ensure that implications of the student’s personal study programme, Laidlaw community, financial obligations, student allowances, and church relationships etc., are clarified.

The following deferment regulations apply for certificate and diploma programmes:

- Students can defer their studies for one semester at a time;
- Students can defer their studies for up to two semesters in total.

The following deferment regulations apply for degree programmes:

- Students can defer their studies for up to two consecutive semesters;
- Students can defer their studies for up to four semesters in total.

2.6.4.5 WITHDRAWAL FROM A PROGRAMME OF STUDY

When a student is considering withdrawal from Laidlaw, they should first discuss their concerns with the appropriate Academic Head or a programme advisor. This consultation should occur at the earliest possible date to ensure that implications of the student’s personal study programme, Laidlaw community, financial obligations, student allowances, and church relationships etc., are clarified. Withdrawals on compassionate grounds should be discussed with the Academic Registrar.

Students who wish to withdraw must complete a Change of Enrolment form. The effective date of withdrawal cannot be earlier than the date on which this completed form is received by Laidlaw.

When a student withdraws from a programme, StudyLink will be notified if required.
If a domestic student withdraws from their programme of study within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the day when lectures/teaching officially start a refund of tuition fees will be given less 10% or $500, whichever is the lesser. Withdrawals after twenty-one days will not receive any refund of tuition fees for that semester.

If an international student withdraws from their programme of study within ten (10) calendar days of the day when the semester officially starts, a refund of tuition fees will be given less 25% (based on actual costs incurred). Withdrawals after ten days will not receive any refund of tuition fees for that semester.

International applicants who are not successful in obtaining a student visa will be refunded the full fees paid.

Any student who withdraws from their programme after twenty-one days from the start of the semester, but before any block or intensive teaching period can apply in writing to the Academic Registrar for a refund of up to 50% of that course’s fees. Each application will be considered in relation to its respective circumstances. Withdrawals after this time will not receive any refund of tuition for that semester.
2.7 TIME ALLOWED TO COMPLETE A PROGRAMME OF STUDY

All programmes have a maximum number of semesters or years in which you have to complete your programme. You will need to complete your programme within these time limits or have a deferral or extension approved. Deferrals and extensions may be approved if you are unable to complete because of exceptional circumstances beyond your control.

Unless otherwise specified in the regulations for a particular programme the standard time limits given below apply:

These student email addresses will be used by Laidlaw to communicate electronically with students. Please note that all email correspondence will be sent to this address once the account has been created. This will be the main mode of communication of written information to all students. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that they regularly check their email, and all communications forwarded to a student’s email address will be considered to have been received by them.

Instructions for accessing the student email address will be provided to students when their enrolment is confirmed. It is possible to forward emails from the student email account to a personal email address; instructions for this will be provided to students with their email account details.

The privacy of student email account holders will be maintained in accordance with privacy law. Laidlaw College will share student email addresses with other students in the same course for the purpose of facilitating learning. IT personnel may be required to access student accounts if:

- Email is no longer accepted by a studentID@student.laidlaw.ac.nz account;
- Required to by law;
- To resolve email related technical issues;
- The College has reason to suspect irresponsible use of a studentID@student.laidlaw.ac.nz mail account.

Student email accounts are valid only during a student’s course of study. On completion of study or following a leave of absence from study they are subject to deletion.
3.2.2 INTERNET

This policy clarifies acceptable use of the internet by Laidlaw College students while using college owned or leased equipment, facilities, internet addresses, and email addresses or domain names registered to Laidlaw College or associated entities.

3.2.2.1 RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Laidlaw College will provide internet access to students when on campus to enable them to access information that can aid them in their studies. In return, every internet user has the responsibility to respect and protect the rights of every other user in the Laidlaw community and on the internet.

Students are expected to act in a responsible, ethical and legal manner in accordance with the Laidlaw College Standards of Conduct (see 5.6), the missions and purposes of the other networks they use on the internet, and the laws of New Zealand.

The following uses of the internet, using Laidlaw College equipment or facilities, are not allowed:

- Sharing password or login details with anyone else;
- Using the network for any illegal activity, including violation of copyright or other contracts, or any other activities which would in any way bring discredit on Laidlaw or associated entities;

Laidlaw College may use software to track the usage of individuals and monitor viewing of pornographic and other unethical material. Abuse of this nature will result in termination of right of usage and possible misconduct proceedings;
- Using the network to engage in any personal commercial activities on the internet, including offering services or merchandise for sale or ordering services or merchandise from online vendors;
- Engaging in any fundraising activity, endorsing any product or services;

Users are responsible for:

• Following existing security policies and procedures in their use of internet services and refraining from any practices which might jeopardise Laidlaw’s computer systems and data files when downloading files from the internet, including, but not limited to, virus or worm attacks, “spyware”, “adware”, other software identifiable as “malware”, usage tracking “cookies” or scripts, port scanning, packet capturing or password or access-key capturing;

4 ASSESSMENT

4.1 SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENTS

Most coursework assignments are submitted and returned electronically. This is facilitated through Laidlaw’s online learning management system, Moodle (https://learn.laidlaw.ac.nz). All students are issued with a Moodle account, and every course will have a course area set up in Moodle. Course information will be included in this course area as well as the facility to submit assignments. Further instructions on using Moodle and student email, on uploading assignments, online discussion and using online databases are available in the IT Handbook. Students must ensure they retain a copy of their assignments.

All Laidlaw College assignments and examinations will be appropriate to the nature and level of the course and award for which they are set. Style and format are important elements of academic writing. Careful attention should be given to spelling, grammar, and punctuation. Spelling should conform to the Concise Oxford Dictionary. All abbreviations, references and bibliographic format must be in conformity with the requirements laid down in the Guidelines for Written Assignments which is available on Moodle.

Moodle records the time and date assignments are received to ensure that assignments are received by the due date. All assignments are automatically submitted to Turnitin, an online plagiarism detector, for checking.

Students using Greek and Hebrew text need to note the following: the standard fonts for Greek and Hebrew are the Tyndale fonts. These fonts are Unicode, which allows all computers to display them properly regardless of which fonts are installed on their computer. Students can download the fonts from www.tyndalehouse.com/fonts. All assignments must be submitted in Microsoft Word or PDF format.

Hardcopy submission is only allowed in special circumstances (approved by the lecturer) such as display work and 3D model work.

4.1.1 POLICY FOR USE OF TE REO MAORI IN ASSESSMENT

In recognition of Maori as an official language of New Zealand, Laidlaw upholds and supports the right of Maori-speaking students to apply to use Te Reo Maori as the language of assessment. The process for applying to use Te Reo Maori in assessment is as follows:

- Students may apply in writing to the Academic Registrar for permission to be assessed in Te Reo Maori for specified assessment activities or all assessment activities for a particular course.
- The application must be made at least 3 weeks before the assessment, or first assessment, is due or examination is scheduled.
- The application must carry the signed endorsement of both the course lecturer/Kaiko and a member of Te Runanga O Te Wananga Amorangi, a list of the current members can be found on the Laidlaw website here: https://www.laidlaw.ac.nz/about-us/governance/.
- The Academic Registrar will consult with the relevant Academic Head and Te Runanga and will inform the applicant of the outcome in writing within 10 working days of receiving the application.
• The Academic Registrar will work with Te Runanga to identify and access appropriate assessors, and to set moderation procedures in place to ensure Te Reo Maori assessment is just and equivalent to that for students using English for the same assessment activity.

• Where a student has concerns about the outcome of their application they can appeal to the Academic Dean, with support from the course lecturer/Kaiako and/or Te Runanga member. Any unresolved appeal would be submitted to the Principal in consultation with Te Runanga for final decision.

4.1.2 REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF ASSIGNMENT DUE DATES

Extensions to assessments may be granted by the Academic Registrar:

- If the extension is applied for no later than the assessment due date and time;
- Only for reasons of ill-health, extraordinary circumstances or on compassionate grounds; work and life pressures that could be planned for are not valid grounds for extension requests;
- For no longer than three days for reasons of ill health without a medical certificate as evidence of ill health;
- For up to two weeks but will not be granted past the end of the semester unless approved by the Academic Head or as part of an Individual Learning Plan (ILP).

4.1.2.1 THESIS EXTENSIONS

A postgraduate student may apply for a thesis extension beyond the end of the semester to the Postgraduate Committee along with a recommendation from the student’s supervisor. An extension may not be granted for more than one semester’s duration at a time. An extension of one semester will be granted in cases where a thesis has been examined and has not been passed but given opportunity to be rewritten and resubmitted for examination.

Please refer to the Laidlaw Fee Schedule for related fees.

4.2 EXAMINATIONS (ON CAMPUS)

Students should arrive at the scheduled room 15 minutes before the start time of the examination. All books and papers not approved for use in the examination, along with bags and other personal belongings, must be left in a part of the examination room designated by the Supervisor. Any valuables may be handed to the Supervisor for safekeeping prior to the commencement of the reading time. All electronic devices such as cell phones, laptops and tablets must be switched off and may not be kept on the desk or accessed or looked at during the exam.

Students must bring their Laidlaw Student ID card with them to the examination room and place it on the desk before commencing the examination. Students who arrive without their ID card will need to have their identity checked by the Academic Registrar before they can commence the examination. This may delay the student’s commencement of the examination and extra time will not be allowed.

The instructions on the examination paper define the work that needs to be completed and the time allowed for the examination. These instructions must be followed in all circumstances. Ten minutes is allowed for reading the examination paper before starting written work, but students may not begin writing until the Supervisor announces they may do so. Examination answers should be written in the official examination answer booklet provided unless otherwise directed by the examiners.

Students should bring their own pens. They must not have any books, written material or notes of any kind with them during the examination, except in ‘open book’ examinations. If required, students will be supplied with an appropriate Bible. Students for whom English is not their first language, are permitted to use approved unmarked copies of English/First Language dictionaries in all examinations and unmarked Bibles written in their own language (not diglots or reference editions) in addition to an English Bible, when a Bible is prescribed.

No student will be allowed to:

- enter the examination room later than 30 minutes after the stated start time;
- leave the room for a toilet break without first informing the Supervisor;
- leave the room for any other reason without first obtaining the permission of the Supervisor;
- leave the examination room until 45 minutes has elapsed from the stated commencement time;
- leave the room during the final 15 minutes of the examination.

On completion of the examination time, the Supervisor will instruct the students to stop writing. When this instruction is given the students shall:

- complete the sentence in progress, but must not begin a fresh sentence;
- complete the cover sheet on the script booklet;
- wait until the Supervisor has collected the script before leaving the room;
- hand all paper used during the examination to the Supervisor.

4.2.1 SPECIAL ASSISTANCE FOR STUDENTS WITH A DISABILITY

Students who provide appropriate evidence from a suitable professional may be granted special examination support such as reader or writer assistance or allowed to use a laptop computer. The request for such assistance must be made to the Academic Registrar at least four weeks prior to the examination date. The final decision as to the level of support granted will rest with the Academic Registrar.

4.2.2 RESCHEDULED EXAMINATIONS

Where a candidate has a clash on the examination timetable, or they will be sitting the exam at an unsuitable time in a different time zone, an alternative time will be arranged for him/her to sit the exam. The candidate must apply for a rescheduled time on the form available at least 4 weeks before the commencement of exam week. Changes to examination times will not be made for any other reasons, unless discussed with the Academic Registrar. All students are responsible for their own external commitments (including work, family and church) during the examination period. They should therefore ensure these commitments do not interfere with their examination schedule.
4.2.3 SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS

Students, who are unable to sit examinations due to illness, on formal written application, will be granted special examinations upon production of a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner. Special examinations will be similar in content and form, but different from the original examination.

Students who are unable to sit examinations due to extenuating circumstances (e.g. bereavement, serious illness in the family, etc.), on application will be granted special examinations. In such cases students must make application to the Academic Registrar in advance, or if circumstances make this impossible, no later than the final day of examination week.

Students who are unable to sit examinations or feel their performance in examinations has been severely impaired, due to stressful circumstances beyond their control, may apply for a special examination. In such cases students must make application to the Academic Registrar in advance, or if circumstances make this impossible, no later than the final day of examination week.

Students granted special examinations under the special conditions are graded as normal. Special examinations do incur an administration fee.

Special examinations must be sat at the time set by the Academic Registrar or Campus Director. After this time, the offer of the special examination will be considered to have expired, and the course failed.

4.3 LAIDLAW GRADUATE SCHOOL MTH THESIS

MTh theses and dissertations are examined by one internal and one external examiner. In the event that the examiners disagree on the grade to be awarded the following will occur:

- The Postgraduate Committee will ask the examiners to exchange reports and attempt to reach agreement on the grade to be awarded. If the examiners cannot agree but the difference is within 2 points the Postgraduate Committee will make a decision.

- If the examiners cannot agree to within 2 grade points an external moderator will be appointed to consider the reports and recommend a grade to the Committee. The Postgraduate Committee (or the Academic Head as representative) will then make a decision based on the recommendations.

- If one examiner recommends failing the thesis or dissertation and the other recommends a pass, a third examiner will be appointed. The Postgraduate Committee (or the Academic Head as representative) will then make a decision based on the recommendations.
4.4 ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

4.4.1 GRADING CRITERIA

All assignments and examinations will be assessed according to the criteria stated in the Course Assessment and Delivery Outline (CADO). When assessing an assignment or examination, the lecturer will indicate the level of competence attained in the stated criteria, in his/her opinion, using a grade expressed as a percentage, or using a grading rubric that maps to a percentage. Any re-grading done at a later stage (e.g., relating to performance across a range of assignments, or in applying penalties), which results in grades being overridden, will be stated as a possibility in the CADO or in this document.

4.4.2 ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

All pieces of assessment must be seriously attempted. Students who fail to meet this requirement will receive a final overall fail grade of DNC (Did Not Complete). Those assessments that alone test specific learning outcomes must achieve a minimum grade of 50%. These items will be clearly identified in the CADO. Students who fail to meet this requirement will receive a final overall fail grade for the course, regardless of the overall average grade calculation for the course.

Bachelor of Education (Primary) and Graduate Diploma in Education (Secondary) have special assessment requirements. In order to pass a course in the Bachelor of Education (Primary) and Graduate Diploma in Education (Secondary), students must attain a minimum of 50% grade in every assessment. Every course must be passed to complete the programme and be eligible to graduate.

4.4.3 PENALTIES FOR LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Work submitted after the due date and time, including after an extension due date and time, is considered late and is graded as follows:

- An assessment is considered late immediately after the due date and time has passed;
- An assessment submitted 0-7 days (0-168 hours) late will incur a penalty of 10% off the grade received. The numeric grade assigned by the lecturer will be multiplied by 0.9 to determine the final grade for the assessment;
  - An assessment that initially receives a pass grade will be given a grade of no less than 50% after the late penalty has been applied;
  - If an assessment receives a fail grade, and it has been seriously attempted, the student will be permitted to apply to resubmit the assessment;
- An assessment submitted 8-14 days late will be graded as either a pass (a grade of 50%) or a fail (a grade of 0%);
  - If an assessment receives a fail grade, and it has been seriously attempted, the student will be permitted to apply to resubmit the assessment;
- An assessment submitted later than 14 days after the due date or 14 days after a previously granted extension date will not be graded;
- Assessments cannot be submitted after the last day of the semester.
4.4.4 INDIVIDUAL LEARNING PLANS

An Individual Learning Plan (ILP) is a personalised agreement that enables a reasonable adjustment to be made to a student’s assignment due dates and may stipulate other conditions required.

An ILP will be considered for a student who cannot meet the assignment due dates in one or more courses. A student may be eligible for an ILP on the grounds of ill health, a declared disability, or extenuating circumstances outside the student’s control and who can provide appropriate evidence.

An ILP will be developed for a student by a Student Support Advisor, in conjunction with the Student Support Manager, and the relevant School or Campus as necessary. Once an ILP is approved by the Student Support Manager the student will follow the dates determined by that plan.

The Academic Registrar will facilitate the adjustment of assignment due dates on receipt of the approved ILP and teachers for all courses affected will be informed of the ILP and agreed assignment due dates.

The following regulations apply:

- An ILP needs to be agreed to and put into place by the 14th day after the due date of the non-submitted assignment;
- Assignments submitted after the due date and time, including after a new assignment due date and time, are considered late and will be graded according to the assessment and grading criteria as stipulated in 4.4.3 Penalties for Late Assignments;
- An ILP extending past the final day of the semester must be agreed to by the relevant Academic Head;
- If a new due date extends past the end of the semester then the new due date is final and assignments will not be accepted after that due date;
- An ILP that extends past the end of the semester may impact the student’s ongoing enrolment. A student on an ILP that extends past the end of the semester cannot enrol in the following semester until all assignments have been submitted.

4.4.5 RETURNING ASSESSMENTS

Assignments have a formative as well as assessment significance, as such it is Laidlaw’s goal that all assessments will be marked and returned to students within three weeks of the assignment due date. However, students who hand in assessments significantly late cannot necessarily expect to receive their work back in the same timeframe.

When marking assessments, the marker will provide a grading comment on which is given:

- an indication of the extent to which the criteria have been met;
- the overall grade (0-100%) for the assessment.

Comments, corrections or indications where improvements could be made will be given on the assignment feedback file, on the script or through Moodle. It is expected that written feedback will be provided by lecturers for each piece of assessment other than short answer tests.
4.4.6 ASSESSMENT RESUBMISSION

Students who submit and fail an assessment may apply to resubmit the assessment, which allows them to reattempt the assessment. The following regulations apply:

- Students must apply for an assessment resubmission by completing the appropriate form within two weeks of being notified of their grade for that assessment;
- If an assessment is graded “F” (below 40%) the application to resubmit must be approved by the Academic Head;
- A maximum grade of 50% will be awarded for an assessment resubmission;
- A final course grade of SUP will be indicated until every “supplementary” (resubmitted) assessment is to be completed, or the date for resubmission has passed, and a final grade can be awarded.

4.4.7 SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATIONS

Students who fail an examination are eligible for a supplementary examination, which allows them to sit an alternative examination. The following regulations apply:

- Students eligible for a supplementary examination will be offered this opportunity by Student Services;
- The offer of a supplementary examination must be accepted by the date specified in the supplementary examination offer, if the offer is not accepted then a fail grade will be awarded;
- A maximum grade of 50% will be awarded for a supplementary examination;
- A final course grade will not be awarded until every supplementary assessment has been completed.
4.4.8 FINAL GRADES

A final grade will be awarded for each student formerly enrolled in a course.

Final grades will be calculated from assignment and examination grades, with each assessment grade contributing to the final grade using the weighting assigned in the Course Assessment and Delivery Outline. On this basis, a final grade will be awarded in accordance with the table below:

Courses failed in one year will remain as ‘fails’ on a student’s transcript, even if the course is repeated in a subsequent year, in order that a true record of the student’s progress is kept. Grades for failed courses will not be counted toward the Grade Point Average.
Students will be advised of these final results for the course with a transcript after all checking has been completed.

4.4.9 REPEATED COURSES

Students repeating a course must repeat all requirements of the course including class attendance. Students may choose to resubmit assessments from previous attempts of the course in consultation with the lecturer. A fee reduction will apply, see the Laidlaw Fees Schedule for details.

A student may only enrol in the same course a maximum of three times. If the course is compulsory for the programme the student’s enrolment in the programme will need to be reviewed by the Academic Head.

4.4.10 PRACTICUM [EDUCATION]

Education students [BEd, GradDipEd] will only have two opportunities to pass each professional experience placement (practicum).

If extenuating circumstances arise, a student may need to be withdrawn from a practicum. The practicum will be rescheduled and completed within an agreed timeframe but as soon as possible under the circumstances. This is not considered a repeat practicum and does not attract any penalty.

Extenuating circumstances are defined as unforeseeable events outside of the student’s control (such as serious injury or ill-health, tangihanga/bereavement, civil emergency, or on compassionate grounds) and which will compromise the student’s ability or capacity to meet the requirements of their practicum.

Extenuating circumstances are verified and determined at the discretion of the Head of Programme and Practicum Coordinator. See the Professional Experience Placement Handbook [Education] for details.

4.4.11 AEGROTAT PASS

Students who by exceptional circumstances beyond their control, such as illness, injury or bereavement, have been prevented from sitting an examination, or from completing an assignment, or who consider that their performance in any course has been seriously impaired, may, on application to the Academic Head through the Academic Registrar, be awarded an aegrotat grade. Aegrotat grades are not permissible in practicum courses in the Bachelor of Education (Primary) or Graduate Diploma in Education (Secondary).

No aegrotat grade will be granted unless the student has made an application in writing to the Academic Registrar within one week of the conclusion of Laidlaw examinations, or of the final date for completion of assessments as appropriate. The application must be accompanied by appropriate medical or other documentary evidence which, in the opinion of the Academic Head, is sufficient to support an application for compassionate consideration.

In deciding whether to award an aegrotat grade the Academic Head will take into consideration such factors as:

- Completion of other assessments within that course;
- Attendance at lectures.

A decision on the academic merit of a request for an aegrotat will be based on an assessment by the Academic Head of the probability that the student would have passed the assignment or examination.
had the student been in a position to complete it in normal circumstances, together with the grades the student received for other assessments, all of which must have been completed.

The performance of the student in other courses will also be taken into account. An aegrotat cannot be granted for more than 12.5% of the total credits of the programme of study.

Where there is a request for aegrotat grades in excess of 12.5% of the credits of the programme of study, or for more than one level 7 course, the student may complete supplementary assessments provided other criteria for obtaining a grade are also met (other assessments and attendance).

Should the Academic Head decide that there are not sufficient grounds for awarding an aegrotat grade, the student may be granted the opportunity to complete a supplementary assessment or complete a supplementary assignment within a given time frame.

4.4.12 CONCEDED PASSES

Conceded passes apply only to a student in their final year of study towards an approved Diploma or Bachelor’s award. A student who has failed a major assessment in one course only, but who has gained an overall grade of at least 50% in that course and who would otherwise have completed a diploma or degree is eligible to be considered for a conceded pass.

A student is allowed only one conceded pass during their entire period of study at Laidlaw. Application for consideration of a conceded pass should be made in writing to the Academic Registrar for consideration by the Academic Head.

Conceded passes are not permissible in practicum courses in the Bachelor of Education (Primary) and Graduate Diploma of Education (Secondary).

4.4.13 NON-COMPLETION OF PROGRAMMES

Students who do not complete a full programme of study for an award will, on request, be given a certified transcript of their results indicating the years of study and the level at which this was undertaken.

4.5 SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

4.5.1 GOOD ACADEMIC STANDING

Students must maintain good academic standing throughout their study. Upon entry students are placed on "Provisional Enrolment" indicating that the first semester is a trial period in order to establish a good academic standing.

To maintain good academic standing, students must successfully complete 75% of the courses in which they enrol in any given semester. Student progress is reviewed at the end of each semester when final grades have been submitted. A student who does not maintain the required standard will be notified in writing and will be counselled towards re-establishment of good academic standing.

4.5.1.1 ACADEMIC PROBATION

If the required standard is not achieved during the semester following such advice, the student will be placed on Academic Probation.
4.5.1.2 ACADEMIC SUSPENSION

If low course completion continues for a further semester, the student may be asked to terminate their programme of study. Students may appeal this decision by presenting a written submission to the Academic Registrar.

4.5.2 PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is copying or using work without acknowledging the source. Students are required to submit written assessments (such as an essay, portfolio or online examination) electronically through Laidlaw’s online learning portal, Moodle. In submitting an assignment for grading, a student is declaring that the work is his/her own. Upon submission of an assignment, the student must agree with the declaration disclaiming plagiarism and collusion. All assignments are then checked for plagiarism through Turnitin.

All words that are copied from another piece of writing, or recording, must be enclosed in quotation marks (“ ”) and the source referenced according to an accepted system of referencing. Where significant ideas are borrowed from other sources, these too must be acknowledged, including any previous work done by the student that has been submitted for grading.

If this is not done, the lecturer or marker will, on the first occasion, issue a verbal warning and require the student to resubmit the assessment. The Academic Registrar will be notified and will note the offence on the student’s file and the plagiarism register.

If there is a subsequent occasion, student will be required to resubmit the assessment to be graded on a pass/fail basis (maximum grade of 50%). The Academic Registrar will issue a warning letter to the student, as well as note the offence on the student’s file and the plagiarism register.

Further instances of plagiarism will result in an immediate course fail, be regarded as serious misconduct, and may result in further disciplinary action (see the Disciplinary Procedures section).

If an online examination is failed due to plagiarism then the opportunity to sit a supplementary examination may be offered, if it is failed a second time then a fail grade must be recorded for the examination.

4.6 SATISFACTORY PROGRESS IN PRACTICUM

4.6.1 GOOD STANDING IN PRACTICE [EDUCATION]

Bachelor of Education (Primary) and Graduate Diploma in Education (Secondary) students must maintain good standing throughout their professional learning experience placements. To maintain good standing in practice, students must successfully demonstrate adherence to the Code of Professional Responsibility (in a supported environment) at each practicum and satisfactory progression towards meeting the Standards for the Teaching Profession (in a supported environment) by graduation. Student progress is reviewed at the end of each practicum course by the Practicum Coordinator, the Programme Coordinator, other school faculty and administrative staff, Student Support staff and the Academic Quality Director. A student who does not maintain the required standard will be notified in writing and will be counselled towards re-establishment of good standing in practice.
4.6.1.1 PROBATION: PRACTICUM [EDUCATION]

If the required standard of teaching practice is not achieved during the semester following such advice [see Good Standing in Practice (Education)], the student will be placed on Probation: Practicum. All students are on provisional enrolment during their first semester of study and their first professional learning experience placement at Laidlaw.

4.6.1.2 SUSPENSION: PRACTICUM [EDUCATION]

If the required standard of teaching practice is not achieved and this continues on the subsequent practicum, the student may be asked to terminate their programme of study. Students may appeal this decision by presenting a written submission to the Academic Registrar.

Any misconduct that constitutes a failure to uphold the Code of Professional Responsibility (in a supported environment) while on a professional learning experience placement will result in immediate stand down from the placement, review and possible suspension from the programme [see Misconduct and Serious Misconduct]. Students may appeal this decision by presenting a written submission to the Head of Education.
5 GENERAL REGULATIONS

5.1 AWARDS OF THE COLLEGE

Every recipient of an award receives a certificate, in appropriate form, under the common seal of the Laidlaw College, stating that his or her degree, diploma or certificate has been conferred.

5.1.1 TRANSCRIPTS

One transcript (not certified) will be supplied to all students at the end of each semester and an official certified transcript will be supplied to all graduating students. Students may request additional copies, but these will incur a fee as detailed in the Laidlaw Fee Schedule.

5.1.2 GRADUATION

Graduation ceremonies are held in Auckland and Christchurch, and in collaboration with partner colleges, each year at which the awards of the previous year’s graduands are conferred. Students must apply by the advertised date to graduate. Students who attend the ceremony will be required to arrange and pay for the hire of the appropriate academic dress.

Postgraduate students realistically need to allow two to three months for examination of a thesis or dissertation, and final grading. Therefore, in the ordinary course of events, final transcripts for theses or dissertations submitted before the date of graduation may not be available by the date of the graduation ceremony in that same year. Normally graduands will attend the ceremony in the year following the submission of their final research.

5.2 BIBLE VERSIONS

Students are encouraged to interact with a range of Bible translations in the course of their studies. However, Laidlaw College requires that students use either the 2011 New International Version (NIV-2011) or the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) text of the Bible in their assignment work. These will be the Bible translations that students will use in their examinations. Therefore, Laidlaw students at all campuses will need to own or be able to access a physical copy of either one or both of these two Bible translations.

5.3 ETHICS APPROVAL

All staff and students of Laidlaw College undertaking research that involves human participation are required to ensure that their research complies with the highest ethical standards. This includes research that may be undertaken within a taught course. To this end, approval of any research that involves human participants must be submitted to the Laidlaw Ethics Committee for approval. Ethics Committee approval must be granted before any such research commences. Undergraduate research involving human participation will only be approved in exceptional circumstances.

The Ethics Committee will consist of at least five members, drawn from the academic staff with relevant research experience including a minimum of one external member. The Ethics Committee’s concern will be to ensure that human rights issues are properly addressed, any potential harm is minimized and managed, informed consent has been obtained, confidentiality and anonymity will be maintained, and that all the necessary documentation to support this is in place.

It is the responsibility of both the supervisor and the researcher to be aware that certain research may need Ethics Committee approval. All documentary evidence required from the researcher, must be in place, and the approval of the ethics committee obtained before investigative procedures involving human subjects and the resultant gathering and storage of information may begin.
For further information see the Human Research Ethics Protocol by contacting the Postgraduate Administrator.

5.3.1.1 STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES AND POLICIES ON HUMAN RESEARCH ETHICS

Applicants for Ethics Committee approval for research should complete the required forms and submit them to the chair of the Ethics Committee through the Postgraduate Administrator. Final approval of any proposal is subject to an Ethics Committee recommendation.

Any teaching and research proposals that require ethical approval must evidence:

- research or teaching merit;
- participants’ informed consent which is given free from any form of coercion;
- respect for participants’ rights of privacy and confidentiality;
- minimisation of the risk of harm to participants;
- special care for vulnerable participants;
- limitation of, and justification for, any use of methods involving lack of full disclosure such as ‘blind’ groups, ‘double blind’ groups, or control groups;
- appropriately qualified supervision;
- avoidance of any conflict of interest;
- respect for societies and cultures of participants;
- freedom to publish the results of research, while maintaining the anonymity of individuals;
- compliance with other standards where appropriate;
- appropriateness of remuneration where applicable.

For guidance on these issues and for an Ethics Protocol form, contact the Postgraduate Administrator.

5.4 POSTGRADUATE APPEALS

If a postgraduate student or their supervisor feels that he or she is not able to establish an effective working relationship, either party may petition the Postgraduate Committee for the appointment of a new supervisor. If either the student or the supervisor feels that the student’s work is not proceeding satisfactorily for reasons outside of their control, either party may, after consultation with the other, approach the Postgraduate Committee, for assistance.

If the student considers the assessment process has been inadequate or unfair, he or she may apply to the Academic Head through the Postgraduate Committee for a review of the process. If that is not satisfactory, an appeal to the Principal may be sought. In such cases, the relevant school will ensure that the issues of concern are addressed expeditiously to avoid significant loss of time in regard to the student’s research or funding.

In signing the enrolment contract, the student undertakes to comply with the published rules and policies of Laidlaw College with regard to attendance, academic integrity and progress, conduct and use of information systems.

If, for any reason, at any point during their study, students are found unsuited to a particular programme, then they will be counselled into an appropriate programme or may be asked to cease their studies at Laidlaw.

Any disciplinary action taken against a student will be in accordance with the principles of natural justice. Please refer to the State Services Commission website ‘principles for natural justice’ or the Ministry of Education’s website Good Practice ‘Part I Legal Options and Duties’ for examples of natural justice.
Discipline or suspension may result from any of the following:

The student’s eligibility to continue in the programme will be detailed in a recommendation to the Academic Dean for approval. Structures are therefore provided within Laidlaw to address complaints from students or other interested parties.

5.7.1 ACADEMIC COMPLAINTS

For course related concerns, including teaching, grading and examinations:

- If a student has a concern relating to just one course, they should speak to the lecturer or tutor involved. If the matter remains unresolved, or if the issues relate to more than one course, the student should refer it to the Academic Head.
- If this proves unsatisfactory the matter should be referred to the National Academic Committee through the Student Representative on the Committee.
- If all these procedures do not result in a satisfactory resolution of the concern, the matter may be referred to the Principal.
- If all these procedures do not result in a satisfactory resolution of the concern, the matter may be referred to NZQA (see Appendix > Unresolved Complaints).
- If the complaint concerns an AUT qualification, information on the disputes resolution policy is available at: www.aut.ac.nz.
- If the complaint concerns an ACT qualification, information on the disputes resolution policy of ACT is available at: www.actheology.edu.au.

5.7.2 GENERAL COMPLAINTS

If the complaint relates to personal, pastoral, or community matters, they should be referred in the first instance to the Student Dean (Henderson and Distance) or the Campus Director.

If this does not resolve the matter, the student should refer the matter to the Academic Head.

If the above avenues do not result in satisfactory resolution, students may refer their concerns to the Principal, through the Principal’s Executive Assistant.

If all these procedures do not result in a satisfactory resolution of the concern, the matter may be referred to the Chairperson of the National Governing Council (see the Principal’s Executive Assistant for contact details). The NGC will arrange mutually agreed moderation if necessary.

10 STATEMENT OF FAITH

10.1 ENGLISH

Laidlaw College shall uphold the truths of the historic Christian faith, including the following items of belief:

1. There is one true God, infinite and all powerful, eternally existing in three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

2. God is loving and merciful, holy and just and is the creator and sustainer of all things.

3. God has revealed himself in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. All Scripture is uniquely inspired by God and is therefore wholly trustworthy and of supreme and final authority in faith and life.

4. Jesus Christ is God’s only Son and God incarnate. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary and lived a perfect and sinless human life. He was sent to reveal God, to proclaim the reign of God in the power of the Holy Spirit, and to accomplish God’s saving purposes.

5. Christ died on the cross for our sins as our representative and substitute. God raised him from the dead through the power of the Spirit and he is exalted at the right hand of the Father, having received all authority in heaven and on earth.

6. Human beings are made in the image of God. They are created to love, worship and enjoy fellowship with God and have been entrusted with the stewardship of God’s creation.

7. Through human disobedience to God, sin and death entered the world. All have sinned and are therefore guilty before God and under God’s judgement. Sin separates people from God; it also brings brokenness to human relationships, disrupts the created order and distorts humanity’s relationship with creation.

8. Salvation is the gift of God’s grace through the death of Jesus Christ, and is available to all who repent of their sins and by faith receive him as Saviour and Lord. They are born again by the Holy Spirit, thereby becoming children of God.

9. Through the Spirit’s indwelling, God’s people are enabled to live holy lives and are equipped, in the fellowship of the Church, to witness and work for Christ and to glorify God in the world.

10. The Church is the community of all Christian believers, who have been formed by the Holy Spirit into one body of which the Lord Jesus Christ is the Head.

11. The Church is commissioned by Christ to bear witness to the gospel to all peoples through word, deed and sign.

12. Christ will return in power and glory to consummate God’s kingdom. He will gather his people, judge the world in righteousness, and renew creation. Those outside of Christ will be raised to eternal judgement; those who belong to Christ will be raised to enjoy eternal life in God’s presence.

APPENDICES
A GUIDELINES FOR WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

A.1 SUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS

Laidlaw College requires the electronic submission of assignments (by upload to the Moodle online system) except in the case of assignments that are designed to be submitted manually (e.g. portfolios of work, tests, exams, assignments where it is impractical to upload them electronically). In such cases the relevant lecturer will advise students when manual submission is to be undertaken.

A.1.1 ELECTRONIC SUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS

Instructions for uploading assignments into Laidlaw’s online learning management system, Moodle, are available from Moodle, https://learn.laidlaw.ac.nz/. Support is also available from the IT Helpdesk. It is the student’s own responsibility to ensure that assignment work is not lost. Students must save all their assignments and back them up: either on the cloud, or on a flash drive, or with some other method, in case of computer malfunction or the loss of the assignment. We recommend also that they retain a hard copy (a print out) of the assignment for themselves.

Note that all uploaded assignments are automatically checked for plagiarism (copying) through the Turnitin.com service (see also section A.2 below).

A.1.2 ASSIGNMENT DUE DATES

It is expected that students will submit their assignments by the due date. Assignments handed in past their due dates, without properly granted extensions, will result in grade penalties. Extensions may be applied for using the online form on the relevant course Moodle page. Please see section 4.4.3 regarding the penalties for lateness and for details on applying for extensions.

A.2 PLAGIARISM

Students are expected to acknowledge the source of ideas and expressions used in their written work (using the appropriate citation conventions, see section A.3.4. This is not only an indication of academic honesty but also a courtesy enabling the marker to consult sources with ease. Deliberate failure to do so may constitute plagiarism, and will be dealt with as outlined in the “General Information and Regulations”.

In submitting an assignment for evaluation, a student is declaring that:

- The work is his/her own, and that it has not been previously submitted at Laidlaw College or another institution in NZ or overseas.

- Four or more words that are copied from another piece of writing, including published material, websites and the work of other students, must be enclosed in quotation marks (" ") and the source noted appropriately. Where significant ideas are borrowed from other sources, these too must be acknowledged. If you are in doubt as to whether material needs acknowledgement, consult your lecturer, the library staff, or academic support staff.
All online submission points contain the following declaration which students must agree to before submitting the assignment:

A.2.1 DISCLAIMERS OF PLAGIARISM AND COLLUSION

This assignment is my own work, except where I have acknowledged the use of the works of other people, or where collaboration has been authorised by the course teacher.

I have not sought prior knowledge of the contents of time-limited assignment questions (e.g. exams) and will not share details of such assignments with others.

A.3 LENGTH AND PRESENTATION

Style and format are important elements of the assignment. In addition, careful attention should be given to spelling, grammar and punctuation.

A.3.1 LENGTH

For all assignments, the length of the assignment has been chosen with care and should be adhered to by the student. Any variation in length of more or less than 10% will incur a penalty 10% off the grade received. An assignment whose word-length is considerably outside these margins may be returned for re-submission. Upon resubmission a penalty 10% off the grade received is incurred. In calculating the number of words in an assignment, the bibliography, footnotes and very long quotations should be excluded, but in-text citations and appendices should be included. However, for undergraduate students, footnotes should not exceed 25% of the number of words in the text.

A.3.2 PAGE LAYOUT

Unless you are otherwise instructed by your lecturer or tutor or by specific assignment instructions, written assignments should be presented in Microsoft Word format, in a black 11 or 12-point standard font. Set up pages as portrait A4.

School of Theology students: You should use 1.5-line spacing. Your assignments should have a heading stating your name, student ID number, and your assignment name. If you are using Hebrew or Greek script, use the Cardo font for it.

A.3.3 ADDITIONAL STYLE REQUIREMENTS FOR SCHOOL OF SOCIAL PRACTICE STUDENTS

The School of Social Practice follows the style guide standards set by the American Psychological Association (APA) for all assignments, research, and published materials. APA is a commonly accepted formatting style for the Social Sciences (e.g. Counselling), and it provides a global uniform style for reading and for presenting one’s work.

All assignments should have a header stating your name, student ID number, and the finished word count. Give your assignment a title, and remember to include an introduction and conclusion.

For the body of your assignment:

- Double space the entire document (including the reference page).
- Indent the first line of each new paragraph
• Align the text to the left-hand margin, leaving a ‘ragged’ right margin, and have margins of 1” or 2cm.

• If you use headings within your paper:
  o Level 1 is centred, boldface, and title case (upper case at the start of each word and lower case for the rest)
  o Level 2 is flush left, boldface, and title case
  o Level 3 is indented within the text, boldface, title case, and ends with a full stop

Other notes

• The title of your paper is placed at the top of the page where your text begins, and is centred. It is not a Level 1 heading, therefore it is not in boldface.

• The introduction does NOT need a heading.

• The title for your reference page is placed at the top of the page where your references begin, and is centred. It is not a Level 1 heading, therefore it is not in boldface.

A.3.4 REFERENCING

The reason we reference (= cite) sources is because it honours people’s voices and their work; it gives credit to the originator of ideas we use in our work. Referencing positions us in the conversation or discussion. It shows that we have researched and used sources to create a solid argument in our work. Referencing also allows for the facts (or thoughts) we have presented to be checked by our readers because it leads our readers back to the sources we used. It also avoids plagiarism.

Students enrolled in School of Social Practice qualifications should use the APA Referencing system detailed in section 0.

Students enrolled in School of Theology qualifications should use the ‘Turabian’ system for footnotes and bibliography, detailed in section 0, which is a summary of the more detailed:

or

However, note that Theology students need not follow the strict formatting given in the handbooks above for the formatting of the body of their essay.
A.3.5 QUOTATIONS

All quotations must be cited using the appropriate bibliographic style.

Quotations of five or more lines should be a separate, indented paragraph. Such quotations should be single-spaced, without quotation marks.

Quotations appearing within the body of the essay should appear within double quotation marks (“…”), and quotations within quotations should appear in single quotation marks (‘…’).

All quotations should be accurately reproduced, including original spelling, punctuation and abbreviations. Retain the emphasis (italics, bold, underline) of the original. If this is altered, the student must indicate this in the referencing, e.g., (Italics mine).

A quote may be modified to fit into your sentence in various ways. You may add a final full stop or a final comma as required without comment. For textual studies, if you need to capitalise or make lower case, enclose the changed letter in square brackets; for other quotations it is not necessary. Indicate using square brackets where a quotation has been modified to give context or make the quote fit grammatically into the essay. For example:

“For what I [Paul] received I passed on to you as of first importance” (1 Cor 15:3).

If it is desirable to omit several words from the original text (normally to shorten the quote), such an omission is indicated by three dots that are separated, preceded and followed by single spaces. If the omission misses out sentence endings, add an extra dot. If it includes the end of a sentence, but not immediately after it, add a full stop with no gap after the first sentence. The remaining words must both make sense and be true to the intent of the original.

For example:

“Beyond question, evangelical intellectual life is being strengthened by developments in these six areas. Yet when assessing the current situation, realism is also required, as well as precision about what is actually taking place.”

could become:

“[E]vangelical intellectual life is being strengthened by developments in these six areas. . . . [But] realism is also required.”

If the original quote is misspelled and the misspelling reveals something of your source or is useful for your argument (not simply a typography error, which you can correct without comment), you can include sic in square brackets after the misspelling. For example:

“I warn’t [sic] too drunk to get there.”

A.3.6 NON-DISCRIMINATORY LANGUAGE

Languages are constantly changing and developing, so it is important to be alert to forms of speech that have acquired exclusive or discriminatory meanings or connotations. Make an effort in both written and oral presentations to use inclusive and non-discriminatory terms.

For example, the terms "man", "men", "mankind", and the masculine pronoun "he", are no longer acceptable as generic terms (i.e., terms for people irrespective of gender). These terms now carry exclusive (i.e., male-only) connotations for many. Inclusive substitutes, such as "human being", "human", "humanity", "humankind", "people", "person", etc., should therefore be used. Alternatives to "he" include the use of both gender pronouns together ("he/she", "s/he", "his/her", "himself/herself"), recasting the sentence in the plural ("they", "their"), use of the formal impersonal pronoun ("one/one's"), or use of the passive voice.

In direct quotations from other sources, the exact language of the source should still be quoted verbatim (exactly as written), even if discriminatory. For example,

“I warn’t too drunk to get there; but when they told me there was a State in this country where they’d let that nigger vote, I drawed out.”

A.3.7 ABBREVIATIONS

A.3.7.1 COMMON GENERAL ABBREVIATIONS

Essays should not include contractions such as: don’t, won’t, shouldn’t, can’t, aren’t, etc., replacing them with the full: do not, will not, should not, cannot, are not.

Contractions should not be followed by a full stop, unless they end a sentence:

Mr Mrs Ms Dr Rev 2nd 3rd PhD

The full stop is normally omitted in references to widely used terms, such as:

NT OT MT IVP RSV NIV TDNT

A.3.7.2 BIBLICAL BOOKS

Citations of Biblical books beginning a sentence and without chapter and verse references should be spelled out fully. Those with chapter and verse should be abbreviated as below. This is required regardless of whether the citations occur in the text body or footnotes, in the sentence structure or in parentheses. For example:

Isaiah states that it is “the vision of Isaiah son of Amoz” (Isa 1:1), but Isa 1:2 says to its audience, “Hear...”.

Other notes about using Biblical references

- There is no full stop after the book abbreviation.

- Single references should remain in-text, strings of references should be put in a footnote.

- There is no space after the colon: Rom 3:15 (not Rom 3: 15).

- There is a space after the book number: 1 Cor (not 1 Cor).

- Strings of references are separated with commas within the same chapter, or semicolons otherwise and ending in a full stop: Gen 1:1-2, 6; 2:1; Ps 8:4; John 1:1, 15.

- Chapter or verse number referenced without the book in the immediate context should have ‘chapter’ or ‘verse’ spelled out. E.g. “In chapter 3 we see that…”

A.3.8 NUMBERS

A.3.8.1 GENERAL RULE

If you use only a few isolated numbers:

- Spell out numbers in words from one through one hundred, and use numerals thereafter, e.g. forty-five; 4,567.

- Use numerals for percentages and decimals, but spell out ‘percent’, e.g. 0.2 or 20 percent.

- Spell out numbers if they begin a sentence, even long numbers. In this latter case, leave out ‘and’: e.g. instead of 520, write “Five hundred twenty…”

- Spell out round numbers (hundred, thousand ...) e.g. three million. Here numerals and round numbers can be mixed, e.g. 52 million.

- Spell out currency when the number is spelled out, otherwise not, e.g. five dollars, $245 trillion.
For several numbers in one sentence, or if you are presenting numerical data, use numerals, with currency and percentage signs.
E.g. “About 20% of the growth came from $3.4b of US foreign aid.”

A.3.8.2 LINE, VERSE, PAGE, CHAPTER AND SECTION REFERENCES

These are presented using numerals without commas, e.g. chapter 21, section 5, page 1356.

For citing inclusive references, either of the following is acceptable:

a) Use all digits, e.g. 3-10, 71-72, 96-117, 1115-1123.

b) The second number can be changed only in the part it differs from the first number, e.g. 123-5, 601-13, 1922-33. Except use all digits for when:
   - The numbers are less than 100, e.g. 45-48.
   - The first number is in multiples of 100, e.g. 200-204.
   - Three digits change in a four digit number, e.g. 1391-1572.

A.3.9 GREEK AND HEBREW FONTS

The Tyndale Unicode font kit is recommended by the College for typing Greek and Hebrew characters and accents. This free installation kit includes a Greek and Hebrew keyboard mapping, and the Cardo font. For Hebrew, these allow vowel pointing and Masoretic punctuation; for Greek they allow breathing marks, accents and ancient forms. The installation kit can be accessed from the Tyndale website: (https://academic.tyndalehouse.com/unicode-font-kit). Please note that the Right to Left language feature needs to be activated before the Hebrew font is installed. Full instructions can be found on the Tyndale website.

English transliterations of Greek and Hebrew words should be typed in italics, in the same way as other foreign language terms.

A.4 TURABIAN FOOTNOTE AND BIBLIOGRAPHIC STYLE

The Turabian bibliographic style is required for footnotes and other references used in essays by School of Theology students.

For an online version of this guide, with quick access links to relevant examples, please go to: https://learn.laidlaw.ac.nz/. (From Moodle, access this using the menu option “Information / Rules and Regulations”.)

A.4.1 FOOTNOTES

References to sourced material, whether of quotations or ideas, are footnoted in the body of the text. Use should be made of writing app features such as “Insert Footnote” under the “References” menu or ribbon in Microsoft Word.
The number of the footnote reference will be represented by a superscript number (raised above the line of writing), with the associated citation reference appearing at the bottom of the page, e.g.

Miller claims that Israel is destined to experience failure.¹

Footnote references are to be placed outside punctuation (normally after the full stop), and at the end of the sentence or quotation, e.g.

McClaren affirms “I have experienced the love of God through Jesus, and as the old hymn says, ‘love so amazing, so divine, demands my heart, my life, my all.’”⁶

Several notes can appear in one sentence, and may be to references and/or comments, e.g.

Particularly significant here is its usage to convey the entrusting of something into the care of another²² and the granting of authority²³—senses which imply the authority of the giver over the receiver.²⁴

A.4.2 BIBLIOGRAPHY (= PAGE OF REFERENCES)

Bibliographies are placed at the end of the work, starting on a new page, and entitled ‘Bibliography’. For example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BIBLIOGRAPHY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Bibliographies are arranged in alphabetical order, hence the author’s surname appears first in bibliographical format. Titles should be in ‘capitals and small letters’ format wherever possible, following general usage (see examples below). When referring to publishers, use only the publisher’s distinctive name, not the fact that it is a press or publishing house. The exception to this is university presses, for example: The University of Chicago Press, Oxford University Press or Cambridge University Press.

The particular state in the United States (e.g. Indiana) should be used if indicated in the book’s title page information, using the state’s abbreviation (e.g. Ind.). If it is not in the book’s title page information then it is not necessary (but it is not wrong either). For example:

If the bibliography includes articles obtained with search engines such as EBSCO or Proquest, any details of the online access tool and the date of access should be removed.

A.4.3 EXAMPLES OF FOOTNOTE AND BIBLIOGRAPHY ENTRIES

In the examples that follow, N refers to formatting of items in the footnotes. B refers to formatting in the bibliography.

A.4.3.1 WHOLE BOOKS

Book
One author
Not in a series

For Kindle and ebook versions, if a page number is used the following format should be used:

Note however, that instead of page numbers, you will often need to specify section names or chapters:

Book
One author
In a series

Multivolume book
One author
In a series

Secondary quotation

In a book

Not in a series

Book

Two [or three] authors

Not in a series

Note that in bibliographical references the second (and third) author’s initials or first names are given first.

Book

More than three authors

Not in a series

Book

One editor

Not in a series

Book

Multiple editors

Not in a series

| More than one editor follows a similar pattern to those of authors, above. |

A.4.3.2 Subsequent References in Footnotes

A subsequent reference to a previously referenced source may be shortened to the author’s surname, with a shortened title, and the page number. If you refer to the same source two or more times consecutively, you may shorten this further to author and page number.

| N | 29 Miller, 162. |

For an article, essay or chapter:

| N | 32 Jackson, 91. |
In a previous edition, the use of ibid was possible for consecutive use. But now use author with page number for this purpose.

A.4.3.3 UNPUBLISHED TEXTS

Unpublished lecture

Unpublished lecture notes, essay, blog, website etc.

Include as many details as possible of: author, purpose, type, date, source; this latter will preferably be accessible by the grader. Include when you accessed it. If page numbers are present, use these, otherwise use section headings. Wording that can be used:
- Assignment submitted for...
- Lecture notes ...
- Personal communication...

A.4.3.4 UNTRANSLATED TEXTS

Untranslated books and articles should be cited in their original language (handwritten if non-romanised font cannot be electronically inserted) with an English translation in parenthesis.

A.5 APA NOTE AND BIBLIOGRAPHIC STYLE

This bibliographic style is required for School of Social Practice students.

A.5.1 IN-TEXT CITATIONS

In-text citations consist of the surname(s) of the author(s) and the year of publication in brackets. If the author’s name has been used in the body of the text, just insert the year in brackets. If it is a direct quote, insert “p.” and the page number in brackets. For example:
Volf (2005) writes that giving and forgiving “are a particular sort of lens” (p. 235) through which we might view our faith.

If there is no author, use the title as italicised in the reference list (or a short form of the title) instead. If there is no date, use “n.d.” (without quotation marks).

A.5.2 REFERENCE PAGE

Most of your assignments will have a reference page. If you have questions about how many sources to reference, check with your lecturer. You will reference all material. These include books, journals, electronic resources, web pages, and non-print sources.

Please note that the reference page begins as a new page after the last page of text. The title for this page is References (NOT Reference List, Reference Page, or Bibliography). All citations used in the body of the assignment (except the Bible and personal communication) are listed on the reference page in alphabetical order by the author’s (or first author) surname. A hanging indent is used for all references.

References

A.5.3 PUBLISHER INFORMATION

If the publisher is located in the United States, include both the city and the state. Example: Grand Rapids, MI, or Belmont, California. If the publisher is located outside of the United States, include the city and country name. Example: Wellington, New Zealand, or London, United Kingdom.

A.5.4 CLASS MATERIAL

If you cite material from a lecturer’s PowerPoint presentation, which is located on Moodle, cite the presentation the same as you would a website. However, if you wish to quote a presenter, cite this as you would a personal communication. Class hand-outs or your own work not located online are cited as personal communication.

A.5.5 USING REFERENCES FOR REFLECTIVE ESSAYS

It is helpful to acknowledge how someone else’s ideas have influenced your work. It demonstrates how you have been informed. Therefore it is advisable to reference the work of others in your reflective essays. If you have questions about how many sources to reference, check with your lecturer.
A.5.6 REFERENCING PERSONAL COMMUNICATION

Personal communication includes information that your readers may not be able to retrieve directly, such as: conversations, presentations, social media (e.g. Twitter, Facebook), and emails.
