

POSITION DESCRIPTION HEAD OF EDUCATION 1.0 FTE

Our Vision

A world shaped by love, compelled and informed by the Gospel.

Our Mission

To equip students and scholars to renew their communities with a faith as intelligent as it is courageous.

Statement of Faith

Models a faith to others that is personally vibrant, Christ-centred, evangelical and deeply shaped by the Scriptures and demonstrates commitment to the doctrinal statement of the College and its evangelical heritage, including willingness to sign the Laidlaw College statement of faith.

Location

The location of this position could either be in Auckland or Christchurch, with travel nationally and internationally as required by a senior position.

Key Relationships

The roles which directly impact this position are:

Responsible to: National Principal/CEO

Direct Reports: Education Academic Teaching Staff

Key Relationships:

Academic Dean Chief Operating Officer Academic Quality Director Programme Delivery Lead Other Academic Heads Education Advisory Committee

1

Role Purpose

The Head of Education role exists to ensure the flourishing of Initial Teacher Education (ITE) and Christian Education programmes at Laidlaw College. To this end they manage the Education team and budget and lead the administration of the area, and champion the College and its Education programmes to stakeholders.

In addition to the responsibilities in this Job Description, the Head of Education will carry out all reasonable work-related requests made by their Supervisor and undertake any tasks that are within their capabilities. The Head of Education will show a commitment to Laidlaw College's Health and Safety policy and participate in creating a safe and healthy working environment.

Role Accountabilities

ACCOUNTABILITIES	KEY TASKS
Leadership of the School and its Activities	Oversee the development and overall theological, intellectual and academic coherence of the Team and their suite of programmes as delivered in on-campus, blended, distance learning, and partnership modes.
	Work with the College's Academic leadership in the development and continual improvement of the academic programmes.
	Plan the needs of the programmes to ensure programmes are resourced to meet development and growth opportunities.
	Foster and facilitate a Christ-centred culture, vibrant intellectual life, interdisciplinary ethos and community of scholarship within the Education team.
	Work with the College's Academic leadership to recruit and motivate a Christ-centred, world-class team of scholars and teachers.
College Responsibilities	Ensure teamwork, collegiality and cooperation throughout the Education team.  Ensure that the Education team engages well with the teams and systems of the College.  Engage wholeheartedly in the communal life of the College.
Engagement with the Wider Community	Wisely represent and promote Laidlaw as a College of Christ-centred Initial Teacher Education in the Christian and wider community.
	Strengthen relationships of trust and service with Schools, churches and other organisations.
	Active involvement in a local Christian church and in Christian initiatives in the wider global community.
	Model leadership and engagement of theological reflection and educational leadership in community.
	Establish and model strong links with church and mission leaders and agencies.
Administration	Work with School Administration to ensure effective overall administration of the School.

ACCOUNTABILITIES	KEY TASKS
Teaching	Undertake research-led teaching in the various delivery modes used by the College.  Contribute to the development, planning, revision and implementation of a high-quality, Christian curriculum.  Undertake continuing personal professional development in the area of teaching and learning.
Research	Read actively at a scholarly level both within the core field of expertise and wider.  Present research and act as a discussant at academic conferences.  Publish papers or other scholarly works in peer-reviewed academic sources or similar, and for popular publications.  Engage with the broader scholarly and professional communities, contributing to the wider research and professional environments and demonstrating evidence of peer esteem.  Initiate and contribute to proposals generating research funding.

Qualifications, Skills & Experience

QUALIFICATIONS/SKILLS/EXPERIENCE	DETAILS
Preferred educational	Doctoral qualification in relevant field
qualifications/Experience	Excellent knowledge of Initial Teacher Education (ITE) in the context of Aotearoa New Zealand, and connections to relevant professional bodies
	Teaching experience as a registered teacher at primary and/or secondary levels
	Experience in tertiary teaching and administration
	Established scholar with respected publications
Skills/Knowledge	High personal awareness and relational competence
	Inspirational leader with ability to motivate and manage a diverse team
	Effective communicator
	Demonstrated commitment to the development of community
	Active involvement in a local Christian church and in Christian initiatives in the wider community
	Demonstrated understanding and appreciation of the teaching focus of the College as a tertiary Christian leadership training environment

Competencies

Active faith

Models a faith to others that is personally vibrant, Christ-centred, evangelical and deeply shaped by the Scriptures. Demonstrates commitment to the doctrinal Statement of Faith of the College and to its evangelical heritage, and thoughtful and articulate in integrating faith and life.

Character

Exhibits high standards of Christian character. Operates with integrity and grace.

Leadership

Is a wise academic leader who models dedication, enthusiasm, excellence and authenticity and can manage difficult situations. Leads collaboratively and by example. Able to inspire, manage and develop others.

Strategic Thinking

Takes a strategic and big picture view of the School, its operating environments and his/her role and responsibilities. Works to foster enthusiasm for, and contribution to, strategic directions and operational changes, in line with the overall College and academic vision. Considers the implications of decisions and actions on the wider mission of the College.

Cultural intelligence

Respects and engages confidently with women and men, people of all ethnicities and cultures, believers of differing theological and ecclesiastical affiliations, those of other faiths, and people who do not profess faith. Honours the bi-cultural commitments of the Treaty of Waitangi, and is especially strong in relating to Pasifika communities.

Performance Management

Instils a performance culture by managing positively, actively and regularly. Recognises high performers, giving positive feedback and appropriately manages and improves or exits average or poor performers.

Discernment and Analysis

Takes a critical view of all information, probing, evaluating, challenging and exposing any potential issues. Does not accept things at face value but questions even at senior levels.

Relationship Building and Partnership Development

Creates partnerships with people and interacts confidently employing astute interpersonal skills and building trust and respect. Engages confidently with a wide variety of stakeholders, and able to represent Laidlaw's ethos and commitments well.

Verbal Communication

Communicates complex verbal concepts and information effectively and professionally with a tone, format and style well matched to the target audience. Handles face-to-face and public occasions involving complex, confidential and delicate information with skill and integrity.

Written Communication

Writes well, and communicates professionally through email and other written means, tailoring communication style to the target audience.

Integrity and trustworthiness

Maintains the highest standards of character and integrity in all interactions, and works to foster mutual trust in all relationships.