Semester One 2023

R140.830 THE GOSPEL AND ITS PROCLAMATION

---

Dr Mark Keown

22 – 26 May | 9am – 4pm

Our everyday world is an increasingly dynamic mix of faiths, philosophies, cultures, and ideologies in both local and global contexts. In such a world, Christians and their communities still have the imperative to share Christ but often struggle with traditional paradigms of the gospel and its effective proclamation. This course goes deeply into New Testament exploring diverse understandings of the gospel to strengthen our capacity to present the gospel today. It also explores patterns of its proclamation, providing a basis for sharing the gospel in posture, proclamation, and praxis in the complex cultural landscapes that exist within Aotearoa New Zealand and beyond.

R351.830 POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH AND WRITING

Dr Greg Liston and Dr Terry Pouono

21-24 February | 9am - 5pm

22-24 March | Wed-Thurs 9am - 5pm, Fri 9am - 1:30pm

Writer's Workshop (Optional but highly recommended)

24-25 March | 9am - 5pm

Postgraduate Research and Writing introduces you to the wonder and joy of research. It is a course designed to inspire students with the vast breadth of cutting-edge investigations that are being done by the lecturers at Laidlaw, and then to teach them how to research themselves by partnering with one of these lecturers. Students will develop and hone the skills of research and writing by designing and implementing a short research project in their own area of interest.

R405.830 MENTAL HEALTH AND HUMAN FLOURISHING

Dr Maja Whittaker and Dr Sarah Penwarden

27 – 31 March | 9:30am - 4:30pm

Mental distress can be a common but challenging aspect of human experience. In this course, students will explore how to understand mental distress from within the framework of practical theology. Students will learn how to articulate a theology of mental distress as well as human flourishing and shalom, through a focus on mental health in general and particular experiences such as anxiety, depression and bipolar disorder. Students will gain an understanding of issues of stigma surrounding mental distress in society. Students will evaluate pastoral responses to mental distress, and will articulate an understanding of what a wise, compassionate, and informed pastoral response might involve within the varied cultural contexts of Aotearoa New Zealand and beyond.

R507.830 ANOINTED MINISTRY

Dr Myk Habets

1-5 May | Mon-Fri 9:30am - 4:30pm, Fri 9:30am-1pm

This course examines the doctrine of the Trinity and applies this to pastoral practices in order to allow the doctrine of the Trinity to have a controlling influence over such practices. This course addresses key concerns related to the practice of ministry. By grounding the course in a robust trinitarianism, students will receive a clear biblical and theological foundation for ministry as participation in the ongoing ministry of Christ in the world in the power of the Spirit, thus preparing them for effective Christocentric pastoral and missional leadership. The course develops historical, theological, and ministerial themes, and seeks to enable students to develop convictions for ministry and reflect on ecclesial practices such as administration of the sacraments, pastoral care, preaching, prayer, and worship.

R512.830 FOUNDATIONS OF MINISTRY SUPERVISION

Dr David Crawley and Karen Kemp

13 - 17 March | Mon-Fri 9.30am - 4.30pm

31 May - 2 June | Wed-Fri 9.30am - 4.30pm

This is the first of two courses which together comprise a Postgraduate Certificate in Theology, designed to equip graduates to offer professional supervision in a range of ministry contexts (understanding ministry in the broad sense of Christian vocation). It examines the nature and purpose of professional supervision, including its importance in people-related ministries. Several theoretical approaches to supervision will be evaluated and participants will reflect critically on theological, ethical, and cultural dimensions of offering supervision in their own contexts.

Semester Two 2023

R121.830 OLD TESTAMENT NARRATIVE: ITS MESSAGE AND METHOD

Dr John de Jong

14-18 August & 16-20 October | 9.30am - 12.30pm

This course engages in a detailed study of the content and form of Old Testament narrative, and the hermeneutical and theological issues raised by narrative approaches to the Old Testament, illustrated by study of selected Old Testament narrative texts. The significance for preaching and application of the narrative form and content within the various cultural contexts of Aotearoa New Zealand and beyond is also considered.

R236.830 SPECIAL TOPIC: CHRISTIAN THOUGHT AND HISTORY – PATRISTICS PAPER

Dr Edwina Murphy

28 August - 1 September | Mon -Thurs 9am - 5pm,
Fri 9am - 1pm

This course provides an opportunity for students to engage in theological or historical disciplines in an advanced way. The course involves a concentrated study of a theological or historical issue. Critical issues of background and context are explored, and contemporary applications to the complex cultural landscapes that exist within Aotearoa New Zealand and beyond are investigated.

R351.830 POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH AND WRITING

Dr Terry Pouono

By distance throughout the semester

Postgraduate Research and Writing introduces you to the wonder and joy of research. It is a course designed to inspire students with the vast breadth of cutting edge investigations that are being done by the lecturers at Laidlaw, and then to teach them how to research themselves by partnering with one of these lecturers. Students will develop and hone the skills of research and writing by designing and implementing a short research project in their own area of interest.

R505.830 REFLECTIVE PRACTICE FOR MINISTRY

Dr Maja Whitaker and Graeme Flett

21-25 August | 9:30am - 4:30pm

This course explores the postures and practices that allow people in ministry to flourish in their ministry context. Students will learn to critically evaluate their ministry environment both culturally and contextually, to develop practices of discernment and habits of mind that produce resilience over the long-term, and to understand what they bring to their ministry role from their own personality, context and as a participant in community.

R513.830 DEVELOPING A MINISTRY SUPERVISION PRACTICE

Dr David Crawley and Karen Kemp

2 - 4 August & 13 - 15 September | 9.30am - 4.30pm

This is the second of two courses which comprise a Postgraduate Certificate in Theology, designed to equip graduates to offer professional supervision in a range of ministry contexts (understanding ministry in the broad sense of Christian vocation). Through the integration of theory, practice, and theology, it enables practitioners to develop a framework for supervision appropriate to their own cultural and professional contexts, and to engage in critically reflective practice.

R612.830 THE CHURCH FOR OTHERS

Dr Joe McGarry

4 - 8 September | Mon - Fri 9.30am - 4.30pm

The church's social advocacy is increasingly recognised as a central aspect of her witness in the world. And yet, a call to social action can often be cast aside or seen as just one priority amongst many. This course presents biblical, theological, and historical investigations into the self-emptying existence for others which rests at the heart of Christian existence. Beginning with the biblical witness regarding the community's posture towards the vulnerable, the course then uses Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theological work to guide our discourse. We will hear Bonhoeffer ask, "Is the church the church if she does not exist for others?" and consider the significance of moving social action from the register of mission (something the church does) into the register of being (something the church is). The course will conclude by investigating historical case studies, illuminating how social action for the other historically and consistently emerges when the church lives from her faithful identity in Christ, and how it can be applied in the varied cultural contexts that exist in Aotearoa New Zealand and beyond.

Summer Semester 2023/24

R540.830 FOUNDATIONS IN VOCATIONAL THEOLOGY

---

Dr Roshan Allpress

TBC

Calling or vocatio is deeply rooted within the Christian tradition as a way of framing the good or faithful life. This course invites students to discern and articulate their vocation, and to frame this within a distinctively Christian theological articulation of hope. Students will engage with integrative theological frameworks, approaches, and their vocational practices in relation to God and the world, to address key questions pertinent to their own vocation, and so to faithfully enhance their own professional well-being and engagement within their own cultural and situational contexts.
